Stacey Fraser & Karl Lagace of Celebrating For A Living*

Stacey Fraser is the owner of Celebrating For A Living. Stacey's business partner, Karl Lagace, is a Certified Red Seal Culinary and Pastry Chef. Celebrating For A Living is a dynamic small business offering culinary, event planning with floral design, and concierge services. The company has been involved in the yachting industry and is presently transitioning to more land based servicing all of Cape Breton Island. An exciting new addition for Celebrating For A Living is the Cruisin' Cuisine food truck for the summer season of 2015. This will add another dynamic to the company's service portfolio.

Celebrating For A Living sets itself apart by offering a unique dining and event experience by pairing culinary creations from local, fresh sustainable sources with a theme setting based on a calendar of celebrations from around the world. The company's culinary specialty and the tag line for which it would like to be recognized is global & local, offering a unique product utilizing local ingredients.

CONGRATULATIONS STACEY & KARL!
