

Occupational Health and Safety Due Diligence Workshops

Business Cape Breton is presenting half day workshops in all Cape Breton municipalities to outline the requirements for businesses to comply with Nova Scotia Health and Safety regulations.

Businesses with 5 or more employees require a health and safety representative and for 20 or more employees, a Joint Occupational Health and Safety Committee is required. Does this apply to your business? Need help organizing in order to comply? Please join us for these valuable and informative workshops which are cost free but do require registration at info@businesscapebreton.ca Seating is limited so early registration is recommended.

The workshops will be presented by <http://www.safetycheck.ca/> which is a locally owned and operated company, on the following dates and locations :

December 8 (Tuesday)	Richmond County	1:00 pm to 4:00 pm
December 9 (Wednesday)	Victoria County Municipal Building, Baddeck	1:00 pm to 4:00 pm
December 10 (Thursday)	Inverness County Public Works Building, 15109 Hwy 19 Strathlorne	1:00 pm to 4:00 pm
December 14 (Monday)	CBRM Business Cape Breton Boardroom, 77 Kings Road, Sydney	1:00 pm to 4:00 pm
