*Meet Entrepreneur & Client of the CBSBDC
Laurel Sullivan of Sullivan Learning Center*

Sullivan Learning Center is a program based business that will provide social skills and academic skills assistance to individuals ranging from children aged 6 to the elderly who have deficiencies and difficulties in these areas. Additionally, the Centre will be providing educational seminars and professional development assistance to individuals in the Cape Breton Regional Municipality.

Laurel Sullivan is the owner and operator of Sullivan Learning Center. She received her degree in Child and Youth Study with a minor in Psychology and Sociology from Mount Saint Vincent University. Due to her personal experience living with disabilities, Laurel understands first hand what individuals and families are going through.
